

Dear Beth,

Thanks for all of your help in selling our condos. I was impressed by how cool and level headed you seem, even when our condo was double-booked! You made the entire process very easy. Although we lost a great deal of money, I'm so happy to have that "monkey" off of our backs. I hope that you have great success with the management part of your business. Thanks again for your help.